T'S GREETING

Merabelle and I had the wonderful opportunity to attend the Mission West Coast Training School and Bible Conference in San Jose. This was a real time of rejoicing and renewing, physically and spiritually.

ie, our Bible teacher, inspiration. Rev. Jackson Kingsburg, stirred our banquet which was attended mission friends. The high-conference, for us, was aral Pacific District of al Union of Gospel Mis-come to Eureka for the 8, Spring Conference. o be chosen Hosts. Be-g Conference is over, everyone in Humboldt made aware and inter-a Rescue Mission! The ck-off Banquet will be 1968. Plan to attend!

SAINTS ALIVE!

Two ladies' groups took boxes of mending "out" to do for the Mission. Six Sequoia Bible Church ladies came "in" and spent a day sorting and mending. The Mission staff fed them dinner - and we'll do the same for you! Arrangements can be made with Merabelle Eitzen at the Mission office, phone number 443-9441. You will be blest - and a blessing!

THOT' PROVOKING STATEMENTS:

"I got to the Mission by chance; I was hitch-hiking both sides of the highway."

"In ten years of wandering around only once before was I approached about my need for Christ. That was done by two men from a cult. Where are the Christians?"

The purpose of your Mission is to lead men to the Cross. This man came in repentance of his sins. Will you pray for him that he will sincerely follow through with this commitment in

MISSION NEWS RESPONSE

We are grateful to all of you who are reading the Mission Newsletter each month. We appreciate your prayerful response. Your letters of encouragement mean much to us. We praise the Lord for the way bills are being paid. Sugar Bees have really come through. Coffee Queens are trailing. Oh yes, we even have some Queen Bees! Bless every one of you. Because of the supply of sugar a large donation of apples was turned into pies - the peelings into jelly. Thanks to Mrs. Marian Brother-ton and Mrs. Betty Morris for working with the staff - and the apples.

CHICKEN PLUCKERS

A donation of seven live chickens became a staff project. Did you know this is how the Lord supplies the Mis-sion food, a little from one - a little from someone else. Many thanks to all who have had a part in keeping food on the tables at this "House by the side of the road."

THE PERSONAL TOUCH

Would you, or your group, like to sponsor a Mission bed? That is, pray each night for the one sleeping in "your own Mission bed," and put action to prayer by Faith - Promising $5.00 monthly support. Your name will be attached to the bed letting the occupant know someone cares and is praying!

A PEEK OVER OUR SHOULDER AT RESCUE MISSION FRUIT -

"Dear Dave and Merabelle, I have been home over a year now, and life continues to be more beautiful every day. I would like one day to be able to tell some of the people in your Mission just what God has done for me, and what He will do for them if they only ask Him. I have told you before how I used to doubt God would ever hear my prayers - but when I really asked Him to help me, and did it in humility, then He heard me. I can't promise anyone riches, but I can promise them happiness and contentment.

I hope your Mission is progressing well. I'd like to hear from you. Please write to me when you find a free min-

FROM P.O. BOX 76

Dear Friends,

Enclosed is ten dollars to lay on the collection plate there at the Mission. We thank God for the opportunity of investing in His vineyard, there. God bless you all; is our prayer!

Most Sincerely, C.W.S.
